

City art trail

Children at ACE Nursery School in Cambridge were inspired by the popular 'Cows about Cambridge' art trail in their city so decided to make their own junk-modelled cow. Using paint, bottle tops, yoghurt pots and pipe cleaners, the children decorated the cow's cardboard body and gave her the name 'aqua'. The setting then took the cow on a trip to the common opposite the nursery to visit her friends on the art trail.

